DAY ONE · SETTLE IN · MEET THE TEAM

01 Arrive in Šibenik

A flight-dependent arrival at Split Airport begins a week in central Dalmatia. Once in Šibenik, meet the group, see the rowing base, and settle into a city shaped by stone and sea.

Flight dependent	Arrival at Split Airport and transfer to the designated Šibenik hotel
15:00	Hotel check-in and time to refresh
16:00	Meet in the hotel lobby for city orientation and camp preview
17:00	Visit the rowing club for orientation and boat set-up
18:30	Early dinner at an old-town Dalmatian table: shareable starters, local pasta, and grilled meats, with Adriatic fish or black risotto for those drawn to the coast, plus Croatian wines

THE FIRST NIGHT

Šibenik's waterfront, fortified slopes, and limestone lanes make an immediate change of scene.

DAY TWO · ROW · OLD TOWN · CATHEDRAL

02 Šibenik: Stone + Sea

Row in central Dalmatia, then step into an old town where Šibenik's streets climb from the harbour toward the stonework of St. James Cathedral.

Early morning	Breakfast at the hotel
Early morning	Depart for the rowing base
Morning	Coached on-water session
Midday	Lunch at a quiet old-town family konoba, with handmade Dalmatian pasta, gnocchi, paštica, and comforting local dishes, with fish and shellfish as a coastal option
Afternoon	Šibenik city walk and St. James Cathedral
Evening	Dinner at a relaxed old-town bistro, with risotto, burgers, generous Dalmatian plates, and seafood options beneath an easygoing terrace

THE FIRST ROW

St. James Cathedral is built almost entirely from stone and has stood at the heart of Šibenik's old town for centuries.

DAY THREE · ROW · RIVER · SKRADIN

03 Krka + Skradin

A coached morning gives way to Krka's river landscape and Skradin, where the coast opens into waterfalls, old lanes, and a slower inland rhythm.

Early morning	Breakfast at the hotel
Early morning	Depart for the rowing base
Morning	Coached on-water session
Midday	Lunch in Skradin, pairing the town's slow-cooked signature risotto with Dalmatian starters, local pasta, seasonal sides, and seafood options in an old-town setting
Afternoon	Krka National Park and Skradin excursion
Evening	Dinner at a lively family tavern near Krka, with slow-cooked veal risotto, spit-roasted meats, house bread, local olive oil, and regional wines

THE RIVER DAY

Krka changes the scale of the week: water, forest, and Skradin's riverfront replace the stone of the coast.

DAY FOUR · ROW · ISLAND · WATERFRONT

04 Murter: Islands + Sea

Row in the morning, then head toward Murter, where low stone villages, island channels, and the sea set a more unhurried pace.

Early morning	Breakfast at the hotel
Early morning	Depart for the rowing base
Morning	Coached on-water session
Midday	A relaxed Dalmatian lunch of grilled meats, seasonal produce, local pasta, and optional fresh fish before the island journey
Afternoon	Murter Island excursion
Evening	Dinner at a compact waterfront konoba, balancing black risotto and Adriatic seafood with simple grilled meats and seasonal vegetables in a relaxed sea-facing setting

THE ISLAND DAY

Murter turns the view outward: channels, small boats, stone villages, and the island edge of the Adriatic.

DAY FIVE · ROW · OLD TOWN · SEA ORGAN

05 Zadar: Stone + Sound

One more coached morning, then Zadar: a peninsula of Roman remains, Venetian walls, and the sea-led soundscape of the Sea Organ.

Early morning	Breakfast at the hotel
Early morning	Depart for the rowing base
Morning	Coached on-water session
Midday	Lunch in Zadar's old town, with risottos, grilled specialties, vegetable-led plates, and Adriatic seafood for those who want it before the afternoon unfolds
Afternoon	Zadar old town, Sea Organ, and waterfront exploration
Evening	Dinner on Zadar's seafront, with grilled fish, scampi, and calamari alongside regional meat dishes, seasonal vegetables, and polished regional hospitality

THE SEA ORGAN DAY

At Zadar's waterfront, waves move through marble steps to make the Sea Organ sing—an unexpected finish to the day.

DAY SIX · ROW · CHECK OUT · TRANSFER

06 Last Row, Then Home

Close with one last coached outing before an unhurried departure from the Dalmatian coast that has been home for the week.

Early morning	Breakfast at the hotel
Early morning	Depart for the rowing base
Morning	Final coached on-water session
Late morning	Hotel check-out
Late morning	Transfer to Split Airport

A FAREWELL BY WATER

One last turn on the water, then home—with Dalmatia's stone, waterfalls, islands, and coast still in view.
